

Crewe Town FC Privacy Notice 2024

Crewe Town FC take your privacy very seriously.

This Privacy Notice sets out how we use and look after the personal information we collect from you. We at Crewe Town FC are the data controller, responsible for the processing of any data you give us. We take reasonable care to keep your information secure and to prevent any unauthorised access to or use of it.

What personal data we hold on you.

Personal data means any information about an individual from which that individual can be identified.

We collect, use, store and transfer some personal data of our players (parents or guardians), and other club members.

You revise information about yourself when you register with Crewe Town FC, and by filling in forms at an event or online, or corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise.

The information you give us may include your name, date of birth, address, e-mail address, phone number, gender and the contact details of a third party in the case of emergencies. We may also ask for relevant health information, which is classed as special category personal data, for the purpose of your health, wellbeing, welfare and safeguarding. Where we hold it will be with the explicit consent of the participant or, the participants parent or guardian.

Where we need to collect personal data to fulfil club responsibilities and you do not provide that data, we may not be able to honour or administer your membership.

Why we need your personal data.

We will only use personal data for any purpose for which it has been specifically provided.

The reason we need participants and members personal data is to be able to run Crewe Town FC and arrange matches; to administer membership; and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with Crewe Town FC. Our lawful basis for processing your personal data is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a participant or member to provide the services you are registering for.
